

Hanen Parent Training “More Than Words”

The Hanen Parent Program, “More Than Words” is a family focused approach to communication intervention for children with Autism Spectrum Disorder or Social Language Disorder.

Education – for parents to learn how to help their child improve in each of the following skill areas: attention, imitation, comprehension, play, and social interaction

Application – to provide opportunities for parents to practice structuring their child’s environment and promoting predictability and routine

Support – to give parents opportunities to share ideas, issues, and concerns with other parents who are in similar situations

This program includes:

- an initial consultation if needed
- 8 group sessions led by a Hanen trained speech language pathologist
- 4 individual sessions which include training and feedback with a speech language pathologist

Where: Capital Therapy Group, 13642 N. Highway 183, Ste. 200, Austin, TX 78750

When: Wednesday mornings 9:30 – 11:30

Who: Parents/caretakers of children, under the age of 6 years:

- diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder
- diagnosed with a Social/Pragmatic Disorder
- children who show symptoms of ASD but do not have the ASD diagnosis
